1. Introduction

The British Council for Therapeutic Interventions with Children, hereinafter called BCTIWC, is a not for profit company limited by guarantee. Its purpose is:

(i) to ensure that children and young people, many of whom have social, emotional, behavioural or mental health difficulties, can access safe and effective Play Therapy. This is what we mean when we use the term 'the public interest'. We oversee and audit the activities of PTUK to make sure that professional practitioners' interests are balanced by the public interest and publish our findings;

(ii) to regularly audit the PTUK Accredited Register, accredited by the UK Professional Standards Authority (the PSA), to ensure that the data is accurate, transparent, current, unbiased and provides the public with the information needed to choose a safe and effective practitioner to work therapeutically with children or infants;

(iii) to undertake an annual review of PTUK's complaints process and PTUK's response to any complaints they have received. We act as an independent advisor to the PTUK by highlighting areas for improvement and we share our reports with the PSA;

(iv) to independently address complaints regarding the CEO of PTUK and APAC, make recommendations and report any findings to the PSA. Please see our Complaints Policy for further details;

v) to review the public interest element of the competencies required for any the titles: 'Practitioners in Therapeutic Play', 'Play Therapist', 'Counsellor of Children Using Play and Creative Arts Therapies', 'Filial Play Coach', 'Clinical Supervisor of Play and Creative Arts Therapies' and any others proposed by PTUK;

(vi) to meet with the directors of PTUK twice a year to oversee their activities and ensure that there is no conflict of interest between PTUK and Academy of Play and Child Psychotherapy (APAC). We monitor the activities of PTUK to ensure it is governed in a way that prioritises the safe and effective practice of Play Therapy and not the Directors' personal interests;

(vii) to report to the PSA any unreasonable refusal by PTUK to implement the Council's recommendations.
